From the Ryland Learning Community Learning Pit:

Our Grade One camp was full of joy, laughter and friendship on Wednesday 30th October! Our children participated in activities tailored to develop self-esteem, independence, tolerance, cooperation, resourcefulness, leadership and determination and did so in a spirit of excitement and purpose. Well done, Year 1! And in the words of Year 1.....

"We learnt how to play African drums and it was magnificent, awesome fun!"

"We challenged ourselves to make lava lamps, tree houses for bugs, Lego creations and bubbles...it was spectacular fun."

"The water slide was so great and we loved our popcorn and pizza!"

Warm regards, Kylie, Karen and Rosemary
