Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome to Week Five. Halfway through the term already! We have been creating Cinquain poems in English, and we will continue to flex our poetic muscles and create other types of poems. In Mathematics this week we will be focusing on time, and continuing to develop our knowledge of place value.

This week, homework will consist of:

- Reading (silent and to a parent)
- Spelling strategies - 'air' as in 'chair'
- Maths - times tables
- Religion - Religion activity for Week 5

Warm regards,

Louise Kuhn, Lewis Capellari, Jo Pickett
