From the Ryland Learning Community Learning Pit:

This week the children began preparing for the final drafting of their writing. Students are editing like authors and will use technology to produce the final product. We are all so excited and hope to share with you all one day.

The liturgy celebrated on Wednesday was very beautiful. Students were most reverent and engaged with mindfulness as they listened to and read the prayers.

Have a lovely week

Warmest regards, Rosemary, Bianca, Mandy, Karen & Cate
