From the Polding Learning Community Learning Pit:

In the Polding Learning Community this week we are working on chance. In English, we are focusing on writing a persuasive script on our life raft skills and we will be turning the script into a short film. Our reading group activities continue to unpack inferential understanding to help them read between the lines.

Homework Reminder: Maths Online Review Sets; Soundwaves Spelling Unit 19 and reading to be recorded in student diaries. Hope you all had a nice holiday. Tarri Johns, Chris Burton & Jo Pickett.
